

Howie's Broken Hee-Haw

Discussion Questions

- Howie can't hee-haw, hee-haw like the other young donkeys and this makes him angry and sad. Do you know how Howie feels? Is there anything that makes you feel angry or sad?
- Jesus tells Howie that he's not broken, he's perfect just the way he is. Do you ever feel as if you're broken like Howie?
- When Howie decided to be brave and carry Jesus into Jerusalem even though he was afraid, his special hee-haws inspired the crowd of people to praise Jesus. There will be times when God will call on you to inspire others by using the special talents He gave you. Sometimes the things that we think make us broken are the things that make us special. What talents do you have that could inspire other people?
- Howie met Jesus on what we call Palm Sunday. Do you know what's special about that day?
- Howie and Jesus' conversation came from the author's imagination, but did you know that there's a real talking donkey in the Bible? You can read about a man named Balaam and his talking donkey in Numbers 22. Wouldn't it be wonderful if Howie was a relative of the real talking donkey?